

Our local community needs K-LOVE radio - I do not have any other choices for Christian music without commercials. The other stations in the area play music with lyrics that I don't always want my children to hear. We would not have another good alternative if K-LOVE were displaced by an LPFM broadcast providing other programming. There are so many of us here in the Myrtle Beach area who listen to K-LOVE and are encouraged by them!